Sarah Jakle is the founder of DemocraShe and the GOTV Director for the California National Organization for Women. Previously, she served as National Outreach Director for Field Team 6, leading the innovative effort to register voters using effective issue-based voter registration techniques.

Engage. Empower. Elect.

DemocraShe is a non-partisan program that trains and empowers diverse female-identifying high school students, building the earliest pipeline of future female elected officials.

They are always looking for speakers, organizations, financial support.

Text this link to a young woman (Grades 9-12) to apply and start them in the pipeline to future elected leadership in our country!
